Want to ride the Jesus wave into the 21st century? There's an app for that!

Revolutionary new media company DV8 Media has released "The Life Of Jesus", the first-ever comprehensive mobile phone application dedicated to the life of the Christian savior. Containing cutting edge original video and audio productions, engaging interactive games, Christian-themed communication tools, and the full text of the New Testament, searchable and bookmarkable, ,The Life Of Jesus is designed to bring a new generation of Christians and the Christian community together to reinforce Jesus' philosophy in a hip, sleek and technologically advanced production.

DV8 will enable always-on access to the tech-savvy spiritually minded.

Included in the application:

1. The full text of the New Testament, bookmarkable and searchable by keyword or verse. Simulated parchment paper with page-flip animation!
2. An original 18 scene "The Life Of Jesus" movie depicting the life of our savior
3. A GPS enabled Christian chat room where the faithful can see true believers as lights on a world map and exchange inspirational phrases with each other
4. A "Prayer Answer Generator" game where the user can ask a prayer, touch the screen, and receive guidance from one of hundreds of bible quotes.
5. An inspirational e mail system where the user can send life-changing bibles quotes and images along with a personalized message to any e mail address
6. An iTunes link to the original "The Life Of Jesus" score, composed by Giora Kukui and Geoff Tyson
7. An iTunes link to our hottest Christian rock artists

8. An easy and tangible way to digitally spread the Word of our Lord in the mobile phone domain, all while living in the spirit of the word of Christ...

"We wanted to bring the story of Jesus into a 21st century paradigm and align his teachings with the technical revolution we are all enjoying. With the power of the iPhone, a talented international production team, a jaw-dropping fashionable aesthetic and the power of inspirational music, we can break down old paradigms and bring the teachings of Christ to a new, younger international audience," explain Geoff Tyson DV8 Managing Director.

The application will be available through the Apple Store beginning June 1st, 2010. Please visit www.thelifeofjesus.net
